

Institute for Sustainable Leadership

Building the future's leaders and creating sustainable organisations

10th ISL INTERNATIONAL SYMPOSIUM ON SUSTAINABLE LEADERSHIP

June 2-5, 2015

Coral Room, Neptun Hotel, Importanne Resort, Dubrovnik

TUESDAY 2 June
17.30-19.00	Conference registration & welcome cocktails on the Lounge Terrace
WEDNESDAY 3 June
Time	Authors/speakers	Organisation	Topic
8.30-9.00	Gayle Avery	ISL and MGSM, Macquarie University, Sydney	Welcome to the 10th ISL Symposium on Sustainable Leadership & update on ISL activities
9.00-9.45	Keynote speaker: Frank Straub	Chairman of Blanco and Blanco Professional, Germany	Challenges and benefits in running a sustainable family enterprise
9.45-10.30 Theme 1: Practitioner Session: Applications of Sustainable Leadership
Chair: Professor Gayle Avery, ISL &amp; Macquarie Graduate School of Management, Sydney
	Panelists	Organisation
	Frank Straub	Chairman of Blanco and Blanco Professional, Germany
	Domagoj Matic	President of the Board Elektro Kontakt d.d., Croatia
10.30-10.50 Morning Tea Break
10.50-11.15 Theme 2: Provocation
	Harald Bergsteiner	ISL and Australian Catholic University	Reinventing the stock exchange
11.15-12.35 Theme 3: What are specific stakeholder groups doing?
Chair: Professor Elizabeth More, Australian Institute of Management
	Victoria-Sophie Osburg (1); Denise Conroy (2); Waldemar Toporowski (1)	1. University of Goettingen, DFG Research Training Group 1703, Germany; 2. University of Auckland Business School, New Zealand	Furnishing sustainable futures: An exploration of how furniture manufacturers can demonstrate sustainable leadership
	Amabel Hunting; Denise Conroy	University of Auckland Business School, New Zealand	Mindful consumers leading sustainable business practices
	Carl Åborg (1); Ingela Målqvist (2)	1. Uppsala University, Uppsala, Sweden; 2. Centre for Occupational Health, County Council of Stockholm, Sweden	Management for sustainable staffing in the Swedish home care sector
12.35-14.00 Conference lunch      Mediterraneo Restaurant
14.00-14.10	Best paper awards (in conference room)
14.10-14.35	Special activity: "Coherence Mapping" with Bruce McKenzie, President, Future Insight Maps
14.35-15.30 Theme 4: New insights
Chair: Professor Elizabeth More, Australian Institute of Management
	Gayle Avery (1); Harald Bergsteiner (2); Fenwick Jing (3)	1. ISL & Macquarie University, Sydney; 2. ISL & Australian Catholic University; 3. Shanghai Normal University	Achieving high performance in small firms under organic leadership
	Tomas Pernecky; Jill Poulston	Auckland University of Technology, New Zealand	Leading the way: A case of cultural creatives
15.30-15.45 Afternoon Tea Break

15.45-17.30 Theme 5: Leadership development in adults
Chair: Professor Grant Jones, Faculty of Law &amp; Business, Australian Catholic University
	Harald Bergsteiner (1); Gayle Avery (2)	1. ISL & ACU; 2. ISL & Macquarie University, Australia	Reconceptualising experiential learning: The Twin Cycle Experiential Learning Model
	Tom Ristoski (1); Elizabeth More (2)	1. Australian Catholic University; 2. Australian Institute of Management	21st century executive leadership development – Key considerations/challenges
	Judita Peterlin	University of Ljubljana Slovenia	Sustainable leadership development: Framework for a new process
	Bruce McKenzie (1); Suree Borisuitsawat (2)	1. Future Insight Maps, Australia; 2. APM Group Solutions Co Ltd,Thailand	How is Sustainable Leadership developed?
Poster sessions (available all through the conference)
	Stephanie Colbry (1); ErinMcLaughlin (1); Vonya Womack (1); James Gallagher (2)	1. Cabrini College, United States of America; 2. Zep Inc.	Understanding the dynamic role of leadership in conflict regions: Cooperative action, courage and shared sacrifice
	Laura Strachan; Janice McMillan; Norma D'Annunzio-Green; David McGuire	Edinburgh Napier University, United Kingdom	Sustainable Leadership: Synthesising frameworks
19.00 Informal dinner - meet in Hotel Neptune lobby (optional, at own expense)
THURSDAY 4 June
8.30-9.25 Theme 6: Sustainable leadership practices
Chair: Professor Gayle Avery, ISL &amp; Macquarie Graduate School of Management, Sydney
	Eugene Allevato	Woodbury University, CA, USA	Attitudinal and behavioral competency of business and liberal arts students towards sustainable development
	Molraudee Saratun	Mahidol University, Thailand	Performance management to enhance employee engagement
9.25-10.20 Theme 7: What's happening in schools?
Chair: Professor Grant Jones, Faculty of Law &amp; Business, Australian Catholic University
	Grzegorz Mazurkiewicz; Joanna Trzópek	Jagiellonian University, Poland	Cooperation needed indeed? School leaders' opinions
	Shun Wing Ng	Hong Kong Institute of Education, Hong Kong	Preparing school leaders for effective school management
10.20-10.35 Morning Tea Break
10.35-11.30 Theme 8: Sustainable tourism
Chair: Dr Tomas Pernecky, School of Hospitality and Tourism, Auckland University of Technology
	Harald Bergsteiner	ISL and ACU, Australia	How sustainable is tourism in Dubrovnik?
	Kumud Sengupta	Market Vision Research & Consulting, UAE	Best practices in sustainable tourism
11.30-12.25 Theme 9: Sufficiency Economy in Thailand
Chair: Professor Gayle Avery, ISL &amp; Macquarie Graduate School of Management, Sydney
	Phallapa Petison (1); Werapong Prapha (2); Veerathai Santipraphob (3)	1. Mahidol University, Thailand; 2. Oxfam GB - Thailand; 3. Royal Initiative Discovery Foundation, Thailand	Community sufficiency in Nan province
	Pornkasem Kantamara	Mahidol University, Thailand	The New Theory: Sustainable agriculture in Thailand
12.25-12.30	All		Close
12.30----	Conference lunch	Mediterraneo Restaurant	Afternoon &amp; evening at leisure